

Adel St John the Baptist Church of England Primary School Newsletter

Issue 26
07.05.21

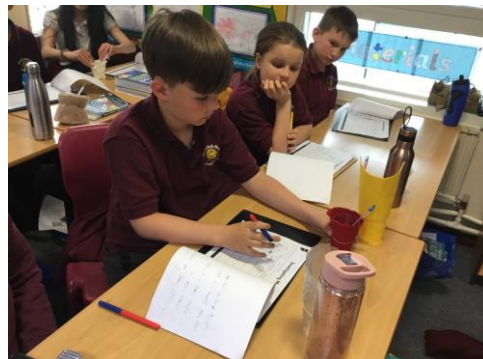

Dear Parents and Carers,

I wanted to share some of the learning that has been happening in school this week.

Reception class, Year 1 and 2 enjoyed a workshop online, with the author Claire Culliford. The experience of meeting a real-life author really helps children see where books have come from and brings them to life.

Year 5 had a full day of Science today. They had to complete open-ended investigations into materials and find out about thermal insulators and conductors in the project 'Keeping things cool'. These are a couple of the photos that show the learning they took part in.

At the last count 74% of parents had signed up for the online video appointments for Parents Evening, thank you to those people. The feedback so far is positive with only a couple of minor logging in problems. The information to guide parents is attached at the bottom of the newsletter – there is still time to book your slot.

Have a lovely weekend!

Acting Head teacher

We are currently finding out about the Christian Value of Faithfulness. On Wednesday, Rev Alison Battye shared her collective worship on Zoom with the whole school. The children had to think about times when you have to do the right thing, not the easy thing. Today's prayer is written by Reuben from Y5, with this in mind.

Dear Lord,

Thank you that we have faith and that we are all happy.

I pray that you guide us to do what is right and not what is easy.

Remind us of the lessons you share with us in the Bible

Lord hear our prayer

Amen
