Issue 27
14.05.21

Dear Parents and Carers,

Eid Mubarak to all our families, who celebrated Eid yesterday. We hope you enjoyed your celebrations.

Reception had lots of drama in their classroom this week when an Evil Pea was found in their classroom! Not happy that peas are never included as their morning snack, the Evil Pea took Reception's fruits and vegetables and held them hostage, sticking some to the walls! The class has done a great job of solving the mystery through creating wanted posters, sending an urgent email to Supertato and each writing a letter to inform Miss Jackson of what was happening. Mrs Quinn was very impressed!

There are still no school trips happening at the moment but I managed to arrange a surprise for Year 5 with a Tudor workshop from Temple Newsam. They had a virtual tour of the house and learnt what clues to look for in Tudor portraits. They also found out about clothing, dances and what bedrooms looked like in Tudor times.

Just a quick reminder that parents' evenings are being held next week on Tuesday 18th and Wednesday 19th May. If you haven't made an appointment, please use the guide at the end of the newsletter to do so. Bookings closed on Tuesday 12th May so we have extended the date to Monday 17th to accommodate this.

I am hoping you have read the announcement from the Governors yesterday about our new Headteacher, Peter Dalrymple, starting at Adel St John in September. He is visiting school on Monday afternoon and hoping to introduce himself to the children.

Have a great weekend everyone.

Emma Jackson
Acting Head teacher

Dear Lord, Thank you for gentleness and the power it has in me.
When I show my gentleness, the world is a happier place to live.
Thank you for teaching me ways to live my life the way you did.
To think about others not just myself.
To be gentle in my manner, my words and my actions.
Help me to remember this value everyday.
Lord hear our prayer.
Amen
